

Where I Want to Be in Ten Years

In ten years, I want to be living in

- A home of my own
- An upscale condo
- An apartment or average condo
- A farmhouse
- A foreign country

I hope to be driving

- A year 2014 sportscar
- A reliable "rust bucket"
- A family car or SUV
- A Humvee
- Other _____

As far as relationships, I hope to be

- Married
- Married with kids
- Living with a significant other
- Single and dating
- Committed to single life

The highest diploma I have will probably be from

- Medical or law school
- A seminary
- Another graduate school program
- College (bachelor's degree)
- Technical school
- High school

When it comes to religious observances, I will probably

- Go to church every week
- Go to church about once a month
- Go to church basically at Christmas and Easter
- Not go to church at all

My spirituality will be best described as

- Closely intertwined with my religious denomination's beliefs
- Eclectic because I see that various religions have positive things to offer
- Based on being a good person, rather than any faith tradition

My highest priority in life will be

- Family
- Career
- Friends
- God
- Other

If I could eliminate one problem in the world, in ten years there would be no

- Pollution
- War
- Political corruption
- Hunger/poverty
- Unemployment
- Other _____

Looking back, I will probably feel the most important thing that stuck with me from high school was

- The things I learned
- The friends I made
- The goals I set
- The fun memories
- Other _____

The job I plan to have is

- Executive
- Professional
- Ministerial
- Agricultural
- Mechanical/technical
- Other _____

I will have chosen a career or vocation by focusing on

- Earning potential
- Enjoyability of the work
- Impact of the work (helping others)
- Doing what God created me to do

My parents will be

- Proud of me
- Disappointed in me
- Baffled by me
- Supportive of me as I make decisions
- Other _____

If I have a spiritual or moral dilemma, I will probably seek the advice of

- A priest or minister
- My parents
- A sibling
- A friend
- People in a chat room

One thing on which any future spouse and I will have to agree is that

- An important part of marriage is the desire to have kids
- My career will take priority
- My spouse's career will take priority
- It's important to practice our faith
- Other _____

Personality-wise, I'll still be

- Extroverted
- Shy
- A deep thinker
- Ready to debate any issue
- A person who keeps my opinions to myself

I hope to be planning my next vacation to

- Somewhere with a pool, sun, and plenty of time to relax
- A mountain begging to be climbed
- The Caribbean on a cruise ship
- A foreign country

The thing that I'll miss most about my high school years is

- Seeing my friends every day
- Being on a team
- The fun of dances and prom
- Playing in the band or orchestra
- Being in drama productions
- Other _____

I'll probably pray

- If things get tough
- When I'm really grateful for something
- In Church
- All of these