

Explore, Discover, Invent

If I could make a discovery, it would be _____

(People can discover all sorts of things. You could discover a new place. You could discover the cure for an illness. Maybe you want to discover a talent you didn't know you had. You could even discover a way to make your room clean itself.)

The first person (besides me) to see my discovery will be _____

If I become famous for my discovery, I will _____

In my life, I have already made discoveries.

One thing I discovered is _____
