

World Day for Consecrated Life
February 4, 2007

Resources

NCCV 800.671.6228/ www.nccv-vocations.org

- Becoming a Religious: A Process of Lifelong Transformation
- Opening Our Hearts and Homes: A Process to Help Religious Congregations
- A Different Path (video and study guide)
- Are the Vows Still Relevant?
- U.S. Religious Life: Young Religious' Reflections
- Religious Life: A life of prayer and service shared in community (pamphlet)
- Many other resources available

Center for the Study of Religious Life 773.752.2720; csrl@visioni.com

Horizon: Journal of the National Religious Vocation Conference

773.363.5454; www.nrvn.net

National Black Sisters Conference (NBSC) 202.529.9250; <http://nbsc68.tripod.com>

InFormation, a publication of the Religious Formation Conference, www.relforcon.org

Origins

Starting Afresh from Christ: A Renewed Commitment to Consecrated Life in the Third Millennium,
July 4, 2002, Volume 32: Number 8

202.541.3290; www.originsonline.com

Vision Magazine (Free resource)

800.942.2811; www.visionguide.org (English)

www.vocacioncatolica.com (Spanish)

Vita Consecrata: A Post Synod Exhortation by John Paul II (1996)

www.usccb.org SEARCH: Vita Consecrata

Vocation and Prayer Magazine

818.782.1765; MagazinVOC.aol.com

United States Conference of Secular Institutes (USCSI)

www.secularinstitutes.org

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

www.usccb.org/consecratedlife

United States Association of Consecrated Virgins

<http://consecratedvirgins.org>